THE PROCESS

01

When to book

I would love to get something on the calendar as soon as you know you want to book with me! Maternity photos are usually best around 32-34 weeks.

02

How to book

You can book online on my website using the newborn tab!

03

Before the shoot

Choose outfit(s), and props, (advice on the next page).

04

Gallery

I will deliver an online gallery within three weeks of the photoshoot. You will be able to create favorites lists, order prints online, and download your images.

05

Editing

All of my packages include basic editing; color, crop, contrast, and exposure. This does not include retouching, but I am happy to do it on a few of your favorites if needed for a small fee.

06

How to pay

A deposit is due at time of booking. The remainder of payment is due at the time of the shoot, and I accept Venmo, check, or cash!

ADVICE

Communication

01

Communication is key! So let me know at the photoshoot if you are wanting more candid photos, posed photos or a combo.

Ideas

02

Brainstorming ideas can help when it comes to the day of your shoot, but I will have ideas as well!

Outfits

04

I advise people to wear something that makes them feel confident and comfortable! We have time for 2 outfits or 1 with a hat or jacket to mix it up! Please avoid blue light and transition glasses!

Props

05

Include props that can show your personality as well! It also helps people relax in front of the camera! Feel free to bring anything you want to include in photos! Ultrasound photos are great! You can also bring a onesie or little shoes, a blanket or anything that might end up in the nursery.

Don't Rush

06

Trust me. Don't freak out. Don't rush it. I've been doing this for a long time (over 12 years) and know how to maximize the time we spend together and capture a variety of poses, family combinations, candid moments, etc.

Pet's are welcome

07

I would just recommend bringing them toys to get their attention, someone to hold them when they aren't in pictures and treats to reward a good job.
